The Chair of Indology and the Indo-German Society of Würzburg cordially invite you to the

SANSKRIT DAY- संस्कृत दिवस २०१९

Teaching and Studying Sanskrit in Germany

Friday, 1 February 2019, 12:00 – 18:00
Room 2.013, Second floor, Building Z6 (Zentrales Hörsaalgebäude), Am Hubland, Universität Würzburg

All are welcome!

The programme is fully sponsored by the Consulate General of India at Munich. Consul General Mr. Sugandh Rajaram has kindly consented to deliver the welcome address.

There will be a performance of the renowned Indian musician Vidya Shah.

Contact: joerg.gengnagel@uni-wuerzburg.de
SANSKRIT DAY - Programme
Teaching and Studying Sanskrit in Germany
Friday, 1 February 2019

12:00 Get Together, Soup & Snacks

12:45 Welcome Address and Introduction
Prof. Dr. Jörg Gengnagel, University of Würzburg
Mr. Sugandh Rajaram, Consul General of India at Munich

13:15 Performance of Vidya Shah

13:30 Presentations
Back to the Roots - Teaching Sanskrit with Manuscripts
PD Dr. Anna Esposito, University of Würzburg

Challenges of Translating from Sanskrit
Judith Unterdörfler, M.A., University of Würzburg

Sanskrit Learning in North Indian Vernacular Monastic Traditions
Prof. Dr. Monika Boehm-Tettelbach, University of Heidelberg

15:15 Coffee Break

15:45 Presentations
Spoken Sanskrit and its Use for Teaching Sanskrit at the Universities
Dr. Sadananda Das, University of Leipzig

Text-Grammatical Approaches in the Teaching of Sanskrit
Dr. Felix Otter, University of Marburg

17:15 – 18:00 Performance of Vidya Shah together with Monika Boehm-Tettelbach
SANSKRIT DAY: Teaching and Studying Sanskrit in Germany - Friday, 1 Feb. 2019
Location Map: Building Z6 (Zentrales Hörsaalgebäude), Room 2.013 (Second floor)