

The Chair of Indology and the Würzburg Centre for Modern India announce a course on:

“Representations of Indian Folklore: Genres, Methods, Fieldwork and Community Archives”

Dr. M. D. Muthukumaraswamy

Director, National Folklore Support Centre (Chennai, India)

14./15.01.2011, 21./22.01.2011 & 28./29.01.2011

Fridays 3.00-6.00 p.m. & Saturdays 9.00-12.00 a.m., 2.00-5.00 p.m.

Venue: 8/U/11b

Being an expert in Indian Folklore and an experienced fieldworker, M.D. Muthukumaraswamy will give an introduction to Indian Folklore, concepts and principles of Folklore documentation and archiving. His course also includes sessions on Material culture; Folk festival, theater and dance; Gender and Genre in Indian Folklore.

Kindly preregister for the course until 31.12.2010

benjamin.hahn@uni-wuerzburg.de

More information:

www.indologie.uni-wuerzburg.de/aktuelles/

